

WHEREAS, Atlanta-based Printpack was founded in 1956, and formally opened the Grand Prairie plant in May 1969 at a ceremony attended by the company's founder and president, J. Erskine Love, Jr.

WHEREAS, Jimmy Love, Chairman and CEO of Printpack, issued the following statement regarding the anniversary of Grand Prairie. "The opening of our Grand Prairie plant in 1969 was an important, early-stage milestone in the growth of Printpack as we were still a very young company, with only one plant and less than $75 million in revenue. Our company today is close to $1.3 billion in revenues with 19 plants and over 3800 associates. We appreciate the loyalty and dedication of all our Grand Prairie associates past and present. Our recent reinvestments in both our film and converting assets enhanced our capabilities and position us for many more years of having a successful, growing business in Grand Prairie."

WHEREAS, Printpack is celebrating its fiftieth anniversary of the opening of its Grand Prairie, Texas, manufacturing facility.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ron Jensen, Mayor of the City of Grand Prairie, Texas, and on behalf of the Grand Prairie City Council, do hereby proclaim the month of May 2019 as
